GED EXAMINERS RECEIVE TOP AWARDS AT STATE CONFERENCE

SAN ANGELO – At the annual Texas GED Examiners In-Service Training Conference held in Austin, Texas on September 26-27, 2007, Beverly Cormier, GED Chief Examiner, and Debby Stout, GED Examiner, received a Certificate of Recognition for Accurate Contract Documents which comply with the policies of the Texas Education Agency and the GED Testing Service of the American Council on Education. They were also awarded a Certificate of Recognition for Accurate Submission of Testing Materials and a Certificate of Recognition for Excellent Written Procedures, of which only 26 out of over 100 centers in the state of Texas achieved the level of "excellent."

In addition they received a Certificate of Excellence for achieving all of the above benchmarks. The Washington, D.C. evaluator noted on their testing center plan, "This was a well developed and organized file. The center followed the written procedures outline suggested by the Texas Education Association. The GED Chief Examiner and GED Examiner appear very knowledgeable in GED test administration and security procedures."

The GED Testing Center is part of the Howard College San Angelo campus, located at the West Texas Training Center at 3501 N. US Hwy. 67. The GED Tests are a nationally recognized assessment that gives people from all walks of life an opportunity to certify their high school education if they did not graduate from high school. The GED Testing Center primarily serves the San Angelo and Concho Valley area. For more information about the GED Testing Center, call 481-8316 or visit the website at www.howardcollege.edu.
